It was a tremendous blessing to gather with Christians from all over the state of Missouri in Branson for the 2021 annual meeting of the Missouri Baptist Convention. The theme for the annual meeting was “Kingdom Focus.” In reflection, I see how that theme was a very timely and beneficial choice. The events of the past eighteen months, being of such magnitude and historical significance, have made it easy for all of us to maintain focus upon those events rather than the Kingdom of God. But there is no event of human history that can measure up to the magnitude and eternal historical significance of the Kingdom of God. The world would have us focus solely upon the tremendous loss of life from the pandemic, but this sad and devastating loss of life should make the child of God even more Kingdom focused as we consider the eternity of those lost to this pandemic. And at the MBC annual meeting, the theme woven into every speaker’s message was a call from God for each Christian to return and maintain our primary focus on the Kingdom of God.

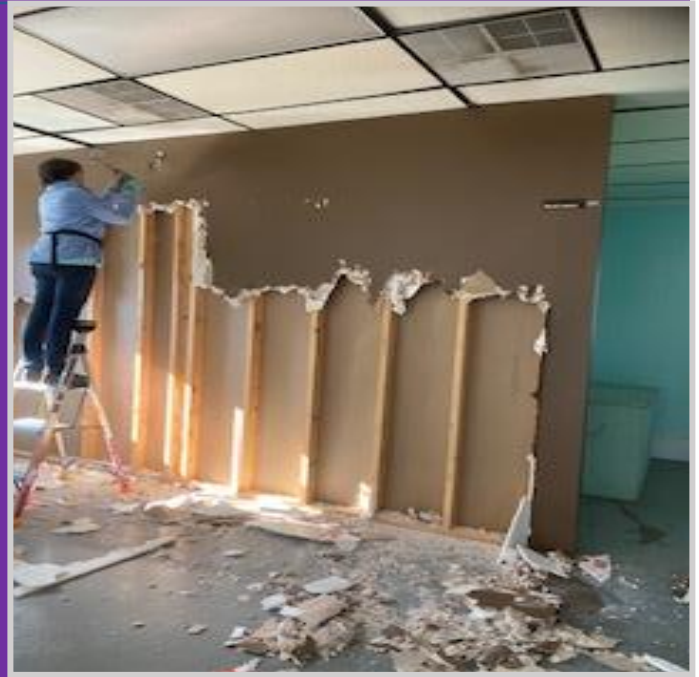

But what does that mean? Indeed, the topic of “The Kingdom of God” is a vast one. However, Scripture is clear that while on earth, each believer in Jesus Christ is already a citizen of the Kingdom. And with such citizenship comes expectations and responsibilities, which can be easily summed up into one concept - The Great Commission.

Fulfilling the Great Commission can be done in an infinite number of ways personally, as a family, as a local church, and as associations and conventions. The challenge from the MBC annual meeting to all Missouri Baptists is to seek ye first the Kingdom of God by making disciples throughout our Jerusalem, our Judea, our Samaria and the utter most parts of the world. “Seeking” requires FOCUS - a focus on Christ, a focus on the Word of God, and a focus on obedience to God’s call and will for our lives.

Seek ye first the Kingdom of God. That is, earnestly seek God’s will for your part in the Kingdom. Then seek the growth of the Kingdom by obeying that will to seek the lost and disciples of them. May God bless you and your church and we seek the Kingdom of God together.

In His Service,
Bro. Douglas Allen
